Training on MCI by Capt M Stio

Pledge and a moment of Silence for the sick, departed members.

Chief Napolitano

- Thank you to Capt Stio for training tonight
- Flu shots will be available on 10/3/24 from 7-9 at HQ
- District will check the ALS stock once a month – State is coming around
- Make sure when you are checking out the vehicles you take your time and make sure all is good. Think if your family member needed the ambulance
- 28-Able has new graphics
- Driver training – you must notify the Dispatcher with the badge numbers of both the trainer and trainee
- When using a vehicle to go to training classes you must also give your badge numbers
- Dept physicals must be completed by 12/31/24. Physicals will be held at HQ on 11/9 and 11/10. Physicals should be quick.
- If a member must be taken to the hospital you will receive a bill for transport. Please give the bill to the District Mgr to have it waived
- Drivers respect the apparatus. Watch where you are going. We need to limit accidents
- Ambulance- if there are two alarms please request permission to go the second alarm
- Commended all that responded to the MCI on Vanderbilt Pkwy. Some victims were our own members
- Mutual Aid to Manor. Drown was used and it went well.
- Thank you to all that attended parades this season
- Vehicle cleanliness – keep rigs look good
